“RESURRECTION RESPONSE!”

Having just celebrated the great miracle of Easter, one thing should be crystal-clear: Christ has risen from the dead . . . and so shall I! In fact everyone whoever lived on planet Earth will be resurrected from the dead. “Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear His voice and come out – those who have done good will rise to live, and those who have done evil will rise to be condemned.” (John 5:28-29). In other words, everyone will rise from the dead. All Christians who believe in Jesus Christ as their victorious Savior will rise to eternal life. All who have either rejected Him, or do not know Him as their Lord and Savior, will rise to eternal death. Those who have “done good,” namely good works through faith, will rise to life. Those who have “done evil,” all acts apart from faith, will rise to be condemned. Everyone will fall into one of these two categories. And, it’s just not enough to know the hope of our eternal life and to praise God for His undeserved grace and mercy. We who know are compelled to share this Good News of the Gospel with those who do not know or accept it. It is our calling to introduce people to Jesus so that they too might have a saving relationship with the resurrected Redeemer through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Look at what happened after Jesus’ resurrection from the dead. In a matter of decades Christianity grew like a California wildfire and shook the mighty Roman empire. The disciples told and taught others, who in turn shared the Good News with yet others and the church mushroomed! Even in the face of great persecution, Christianity marched on. Consider the disciple Peter, who shrunk from his faith and denied even knowing Jesus. After the resurrection and the day of Pentecost, he was transformed into a lion of the faith that enabled him to withstand a martyr’s death. James the half-brother of Jesus, hated everything his brother stood for. After the resurrection he calls himself a “bond-servant ... of the Lord Jesus Christ (James 1:1). He became a leader in the early Jerusalem church and would be one of the early ones martyred for his faith. And, of course, take the Apostle Paul! He was a persecutor of the early church. Yet, after the resurrected Jesus appeared to him on the road to Damascus, he became the chief Apostle to the Gentiles. These are only a few of the more notable transformational responses to Jesus’ resurrection. There were doubtlessly many others.

What about us? How do we respond to the resurrection of our Lord? What difference does it make to us knowing that we will be raised to eternal life, but many others will be raised to eternal death? And we have the life-giving Gospel message that can change their eternal future. Doesn’t that transform and compel us to take action and share the Good News of hope and life? If it doesn’t, reach up to your carotid artery and see if you still have a pulse! Perhaps you feel some hesitation and fear in talking about Jesus with others. That’s not uncommon. Satan will do all he can to keep you in that fearful state and not responsive. The Lord will help you overcome this fear as you pray and grow in His Word. He has given us the same Holy Spirit He gave Peter, Paul, James and the early church. So, what’s your resurrection response?

The Board of Lay Ministry and I are beginning to work on a congregation wide training workshop to equip us to share our faith in Jesus with other people. Pray for our work on this important project, and when we schedule it commit to attending it. “Christ has risen! He has risen indeed - and so shall I!” May our resurrection response be to tell everyone of his resurrection and theirs, that they may be raised to life and not to death!

EASTER SERMON SERIES: The Book of First Peter On the Sundays thru the Easter Season we will turn our focus toward the first epistle of the disciple Peter. From 4/27 thru 5/25 we will take a chapter a week. It will be especially helpful if you read thru the chapter of the week a couple of times and become more familiar with it before the Sunday sermon. The theme for our series is: “Stand Fast in God’s Grace and Follow Christ’s Example.”

Easter II 4/27 1 Peter, Chapter 1 “Our Hope Is In The Living Savior; Therefore Live Holy In Reverent Fear”

Easter III 5/4 1 Peter, Chapter 2 “Christ Is Our Cornerstone; We Are His Living Stones, His Suffering Servants”

Easter IV 5/11 1 Peter, Chapter 3 “Stand Fast In Your Hope In Christ And Follow His Example”

Easter V 5/18 1 Peter, Chapter 4 “Let Us Live For God . . . Even Suffer For Christ!”

Easter VI 5/25 1 Peter, Chapter 5 “Humbly Stand Firm In Faith; Resist The Enemy; Be Lifted Up In Due

QUILTING FOR LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF

Shepherd's Staff - Vol. 21, No. 5 Published Monthly
by Shepherd of the Valley;
11650 Perris Blvd.; Moreno Valley, CA 92557-6563

Hello everyone from the quilting group:

I want to garner some interest in our work so I will start by asking this question. Where would you go to purchase jelly rolls, charm packs, honey combs, layer cakes, and cinnamon rolls? Well you would go to JoAnn's to find these items. We love all these new quilting ideas and we love the pieces of materials you send us even more. All pieces are welcome and when we design a quilt it is especially handy when we have lots of pieces to select from.

We would like to say thank you to Kathy Sessions, Janean Hamann, Eva Carlson, Bernice Bennett and Anna Marie Ontiveros for donations to our group.

What we need now are clean, flat sheets in full size (good-used are accepted). They are so great for the backing of our quilts. When you clean out your linen closet we would appreciate sheets you don't want to come our way. We are always on the lookout for large pieces of fabric that can be used for backings.

Updates on where our donations from last year were sent – all health kits went to the Philippines and the quilts were sent this month to Armenia. We have received many thank yous from LWR for our donations. May God truly bless each of you for helping all of God's people all over the world. You bring joy and happiness to their hearts by knowing that others care about them.

If you need to contact me, Linda Olson, call 276-0373. If I am not home please leave a message and I will call back. We meet the 4th Saturday of each month in the fellowship hall except in October when we meet earlier to assemble kits. We are off November and December. Please come to the fellowship hall and visit us when you can.

LWML SPRING RALLY: Saturday, May 10, starting with registration at 9 am at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Menifee. The program includes a Bible study on Prayer given by Pastor Paul & Kedma Wenz and keynote speaker Rachel Liptak, praise and worship offered by the GSLC Joy Singers, a brief Zone business meeting, mid-morning refreshments and lunch (donation $5). Please sign contact Marge Clark at 924-4688 asap if you would like to attend and haven't already signed up.

BRUNCH AND? Saturday, May 17 at 9:30 am for a post-Mother's Day brunch in the fellowship hall. The cost is $5 per person and will be catered by C&C. We hope to have some special entertainment and other surprises so please plan to join us! Sign on the clipboard in the lobby if you plan to attend.

SAVE THE DATE: The Women's Retreat will be held on the first weekend of August, that's August 1st.- 3rd. at Nagels Nite Away in Big Bear. We would love to see new faces. If you have never attended one of our retreats and you have any questions, please ask any of the following people: Ruby Kraft, Marge Clark, or Laurie White, for more information.

IT'S NEVER TOO SOON to start thinking about the annual Holiday Craft Boutique! It is scheduled for Saturday, November 8th from 8 am - 2 pm. There will be some crafting workshops planned to get together and make items to sell at the boutique and we will again have a canning workshop where all the delicious jams we sell will be prepared. Dates for these workshops will be announced soon. In anticipation of the canning, we would appreciate donations of half-pint mason jars, pectin, sugar and fruit. We'll also take the used jars from last year and recycle them. If you get fruit, contact any of the committee members (Marge Clark, Jan Schatz, Laurie White, and Paula Winn) and we'll arrange for getting it frozen and stored until needed. Thanks!

Weekend Retreat for Single Lutherans Coming Up in July

Are you widowed, divorced, or never married? Come and be part of the Lutheran Singles' Association (LSA) Summer Conference over the Fourth of July weekend in Wichita, Kansas! The retreat will begin Thursday evening, July 3rd, with registration, dinner, and entertainment. On Friday, July 4th, and Saturday, July 5th, participants will hear the keynote speaker, Pastor Paul Rosburg from Wyoming, plus participate in workshops on faith, health, and finances. There will be a BBQ Dinner with live music on Friday evening, and a Chuck Wagon Supper on Saturday. The retreat ends Sunday, July 6th, following a morning worship service and lunch. More information about the LSA Summer Conference is available at LutheransOnline.com. Type "Lutheran Singles' Conference" in the space at the top of the page in order to bring up the registration form. Or contact Nancy Taylor at conference@lsalcms.org for more information. Lutheran Singles' Association holds a biannual summer conference, other smaller events, and publishes a quarterly newsletter called The Soloist.

HOW DO PEOPLE COME TO KNOW AND BELIEVE IN JESUS? In two separate and independent research studies attempting to discover how most people come to faith in Jesus and active in a church, almost identical results were discovered:

Evangelistic Crusade	1%
Meeting of special needs	1-2%
Visitation	1-2%
Church Programming	2-3%
Walk-In Visitors (Worship)	2-3%
Sunday School/Bible Class/Small Group	4-5%
Relationship to Pastor	5%
Through a friend or relative	78-84%

What does this reveal about the importance of members reaching out to their friends and relatives and inviting them to church?

Un-apologetic column 14 Stop, and Nobody Gets Hurt!

Hello again! I hope you all had a blessed Easter this past month. I love being busy. It's just in my makeup. I tend to overextend myself, and my days fill up pretty quickly. As a result, I don't have much time to follow what is happening in the news, or much time to follow current T.V. programs. It seems I am always busy on the nights than any particular show I'm interested in might be showing, so I tend to just not watch many current programs. I instead tend to watch shows that have already completed their runs on sites such as Netflix, Hulu or Amazon Prime.

One of the shows I have enjoyed following on Netflix is called Doc Martin. If you aren't familiar with the series, it tracks the life of an English surgeon that develops a fear of blood, and as a consequence, moves to a small village in the country to be the town's general practitioner. The humor in the show is derived from the fact that the doctor has no bedside manner, and is very terse with his patients. Quirky towns people round out the cast and help set up some very good situational humor.

In one of the episodes, a pair of married psychologists moves into the village with their pre-teen son. Soon after, people begin noticing their cars have been keyed, and property damage is taking place. Eventually the young man is caught in the act by the doctor. But when he confronts the parents about their child's actions, they seem unfazed. "Why are you so upset? Our boy didn't hurt anyone. We are trying to teach him to be a free spirit." Is the response given by the parents (who are at the time burning the carcass of a badger that was found on the side of the road to "release its spirit"). Of course the town's people don't buy into this way of parenting, and the couple eventually pays for the damage done by their son.

While this makes for some funny moments in a T.V. show, they attitude of "I'm not hurting anyone" can be less humorous in real life. Often as Christians, we are called to stand on moral principles that are not shared by society. One of the usual replies when Christians raise objections to a certain behavior or action is: "Well, I'm not hurting anyone." This statement has always baffled me. How exactly do they know that no one is being hurt? It seems like this statement becomes a conversation killer. You aren't really supposed to continue on once someone has uttered this phrase. But have you ever considered asking a question back and challenging this a little?

I have recently tried a particular tactic that seems to get to the heart of the flaws in this type of thinking. Whenever someone offers this phrase to me as a defense of some type of behavior, I simply ask "What if I can show you that this behavior actually does hurt people, would you then be against it?" The person making the statement is usually taken aback by this question. "Well, no I would still want to continue with my behavior, because I think its ok." I then point out that this is very different from their original statement. What they are now saying is "I want to do something, and I don't care if anyone gets hurt."

Mind you, this is not simply a rhetorical trick used to win an argument. Many of the so called "harmless" activities that our postmodern culture embraces actually do hurt not only the participants, but all of society as well. So when you hear this phrase uttered, don't be afraid to push back a little. The person is going to have a hard time proving that their actions cause no physical, emotional, familial or societal pain to anyone. We don't live in a vacuum. Our actions do affect other people, and cause pain we often are willing to overlook if it means getting our way.

In Luke 14:34 we are told to be salt to the earth. "Salt is good, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored?" We need to speak God's truth, even when it is not popular. We have come to a point in our culture where now the person with the fewest moral restrictions is considered to be the most moral. One way we can counter this is by graciously exposing faulty thinking when we encounter it. Don't accept a claim of "I'm not hurting anyone" without thinking a little deeper on the matter, and try to get the person uttering the claim to think a little too. Stop the bad thinking, and maybe less people will be hurt! See you all next month!

Your servant,
Drew Covert

(Air Force Village West)

Heather and Ryan Reithmeier return with pianist Izumi Kashiwagi

Sunday, May 11th at 3 pm

Tickets: $20 / $15 for seniors and students

Popular vocal artists Heather and Ryan Reithmeier continue to win audiences through their engaging performances of romantic and uniquely-crafted programs of solo and duet material from standard operatic, operetta, and concert repertoire.

The booth is sponsored by the Southern California District and the Sunshine Zone of the International Lutheran Laymen's League. We are asking neighboring counties as we have a need for more volunteers from outside of San Diego county. Volunteers are needed to be ambassadors for Jesus Christ while staffing the fair booth. We ask for two volunteers per shift, so this is an opportune time for people to partner together. This could be a discipleship opportunity to grow disciples as well as being an ambassador. We also encourage youth with adult partners to participate. It is a very easy evangelism effort. All it requires is a four hour commitment to share what the Lutheran Hour does, who is Jesus Christ, and hand out free material. Most of the time however, all one has to do is smile and say hello to passer bys and pray. All of our material at the booth is free. We have Bibles, many LHM tracts, trinkets for the children and other things. Sometimes it is no more than saying hello as people pass by. They realize that Christians can be nice people also. We do not get into people's faces or confront them. They are there to enjoy the fair and we want to leave them with a pleasant experience after seeing or visiting the booth.

The rest of the time is free for the volunteers to enjoy the fair. In fact, we'll give them an admission ticket to the fair (needed to staff the booth) to enjoy the fair before or after their shift. The dates of the San Diego County Fair are Saturday June 7 through Sunday July 6 (closed Mondays and first two Tuesdays). Shifts are morning, afternoon, and evening. Specific times will be determined later. If you are interested, please call us at: 858-205-2974 – Mike Kler 858-693-8717 – Ted Davis Or email us at: lhm.sdfair@gmail.com

Members and friends graduating from all levels of school, mark your attendance card with this information or contact the church office so that we can include it in our next newsletter and upcoming announcements. Please let us know of any special awards or recognitions and we'll include that information also.

THE NEXT LUTHERAN CURSILLO WEEKENDS - July 10-13 (for men) and July 17-20 (for women). If you have questions, contact others who have attended Cursillo (Pr. Deinert or Pr. Krueger, Larry & Marlene Alexander, Bob & Carole Johansen, Jerry & Sue Anna Schatz, Helen Bedford, Marge Clark, and Laurie White) about what you may be able to gain from attending a Cursillo weekend before applying.

Thank you to all that helped with the Easter breakfast. Our youth always enjoy putting this event on for the congregation. Special thanks go out to the Hamann, Maurer, Kerr, Johansen, and Schatz families for their hard work. We would never be able to pull this off without you! We pray that this type of event continues to be a blessing to the congregation, and that it becomes a fixture in your Easter traditions.

With thanks, Drew Covert

May 2014

THE DATE FOR VBS HAS BEEN SET!

Mark the week of July 7-11 from 3 to 6 pm. and plan to help out and to bring kids to Shepherd's VBS. The theme is Arrow Island: Choosing God's Way. Today's world is full of choices! Too often Biblical principles are separated from the choices we make. This VBS will equip kids to choose God's way in every detail of their lives—all while exploring an island full of exciting tropical habitats. Fill out one of the blue helper forms available in the church lobby and let us know how you will help.

You may volunteer or register your kids online also!

LENT & EASTER
MISSION PROJECT
MILITARY BIBLE MEMORY STICKS

As of Easter Sunday we were up to a total of 82 Bible memory sticks. The donations for 82 were sent in to Faith Comes By Hearing in order to take advantage of the matching grant that was available until April 30th. So our 82 Bible sticks will become 164! We are still pushing to reach our goal of 100 by the end of the Easter season (Memorial Day week-end Sunday). Thank you to all who donated already! We're almost at our goal - please help make this a successful campaign for the sake of our military men and women!

COLLABORATIVE STAFF & VOLUNTEER MEETING

Our next all staff and volunteer collaborative meeting will be on Saturday morning, May 31st, from 8:30am to Noon in the fellowship hall. We will review our first draft Vision Statement and do some brain-storming on what we can do differently as a church to reach out (and in) to grow. Please reserve this time to attend and participate in this endeavor. Thank you!
