

ALL ALONE

Sola gratia (grace alone), sola fide (faith alone), sola scriptura (scripture alone). As Lutherans we likely have heard these before, if not the Latin then at least the English translations. But just what do they mean?

These three statements, along with the often forgotten solus Christus (Christ alone), are really what the reformation was all about. These statements represent the core of our faith, one that holds that we are saved by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone as He is revealed in Scripture alone.

Okay, but why is this so important for us? The answer may not be as simple as that statement, then again, it may be far simpler. Martin Luther sought to bring the church back to this basic principle that we are saved by grace through faith, not by works. The idea of indulgences and pilgrimages was to earn salvation by doing something to make up for our sins. Our good works needed to outweigh our sins. To help with this people could purchase these indulgences, they could visit certain sacred places or perform certain acts of devotion, they could view relics or give to the church, all in order to in some way make up for those sins they had committed or even those their loved ones had committed. But this all took away from the work of Christ. Still, such practices were encouraged by popes and councils as good and true, even if they contradicted the words of Scripture. This system then made for a salvation that was accomplished by the works of man and not God.

The reformation was all about returning to a salvation that was from God alone. And so these statements embodied that understanding. Our salvation is a gift of grace and of grace alone. Nothing we do could ever begin to atone for our sins. To even suggest that our works could was to undermine the work of Christ. Thus grace alone. We gain access to this gift of grace through faith, and this faith is given to us by the working of the Holy Spirit. Again, nothing we do earns this. Thus faith alone. We learn about this gift of grace and faith is worked in us as we hear the clear words of Scripture, and it is only Scripture that informs us about how we are to live as people who have received these wondrous gifts. And all of this is solus Christus, through Christ alone. It is the work of Christ alone that offers forgiveness, life, and salvation. Only through His blood shed on the cross are we saved. This great gospel message is made known to us through the pages of Holy Scripture, we lay hold of its benefits through faith, and we are given this gift by grace.

Sola gratia, sola fide, sola scriptura, solus Christus. Grace alone, faith alone, scripture alone, through Christ alone. And as all of this is given to us we find ourselves learning a fifth solae, soli deo gloria, glory to God alone. For our salvation, for the gift of forgiveness, for all that these bring us, we give glory to God alone because He alone is the one who has worked our salvation, it is His grace that gives to us all that we have and turns from us the wrath our sins deserve.

Remember this as we celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Yes, Martin Luther was important as it was through Him that God worked to bring the Church back to a scriptural understanding of His works, but even Luther would have not wanted this to be all about Luther, in fact he most likely would have been fine had his name been forgotten as long as the glory for our salvation was given to God alone.

To God alone be the glory.
Pastor Paul Yearyearn

QUILTING FOR LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF

Shepherd's Staff - Vol. 24, No. 09 Published Monthly
by Shepherd of the Valley;
11650 Perris Blvd.; Moreno Valley, CA 92557-6563

Hello Everyone from the Quilters!

When you get this newsletter we will have had our last regular meeting for the year. We have a couple things that still need completion before they are sent off for delivery on Oct. 20. Bring your cameras with you to church on Sunday Oct. 8 for the blessing of the quilts.

We want to thank each and every one of you who have donated items to our group this past year and ask God to bless you for your support. It is with your help, that we count on, that keeps us going and bringing comfort, warmth, and love to God's people so they know others are working to help them and their families.

All the quilts we made last year went to India. All the baby quilts were delivered to San Bernardino to the Pregnancy and Family Resource Center. You helped save many lives of babies that stayed with their families. This year other quilts and items will be delivered later next month. Thank you for your much needed support there.

If you want more information about our groups please contact Linda Olson 276-0373. We meet on the fourth Saturday of each month except in October when we meet on the second Saturday to set up quilts for the blessing and package them for delivery on Oct. 20. We take November and December to work at home on items for the boutique. We always love to have visitors come by to see us at work or join in and help. Thanks again and may God richly bless all of us.

HOLIDAY CRAFT BOUTIQUE

Our 2017 Holiday Boutique is just around the corner, Saturday, November 18th from 8 am to 2 pm. We had a successful craft night in September and hope you join the fun on Monday, October 9th, and Friday, October 20th and Friday, November 4th.

Once again we are truly blessed to already have a "full house" of vendors inside including several new faces. The funds raised this year will be used to install stained glass overlay on the windows above the church entry door (same as is behind the cross and above the side windows in the sanctuary). I hear our Shepherd Bakers have some new recipes – yum!. We will be having a gently used table again this year and Christmas items most definitely! Looking forward to seeing all of you on the Nov. 18th!

Yours in Christ,

The Boutique Team Paula Winn, Marge Clark and Laurie White

PRAYER SHAWLS – STITCHED IN PRAYER; GIVEN IN LOVE.

Our group members have been busy this summer – we have knitted and crocheted over 20 shawls! We have also begun making a smaller version of the shawl called a "pocket prayer square." Designed to be tucked into a pocket or purse, the "Pocket Prayer Square" is a tiny reminder of God's great love for us.

Please consider joining us at 10:00 on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays of each month. We can show you how to use a very simple pattern to create a gift that provides comfort and hope. Please see Lisa Butterfield or Kathy Muckala if you have any questions.

Time Alone With God

Give me time alone with you dear Lord
So I can ever be
Your child and live in true relationship
In peace and harmony

Give me time alone with you my Savior
So I can have your strength
To withstand my enemies
And love will flow at length

Give me time alone with you divine
Trinity
So I can choose to serve you well
As your reflection
Shines in me

Give me time alone with you
And keep humble, true
That my heart may be your throne
And you will breath in me

Happiness cannot compare
To what you have given me
But if one hour a day I'll choose
Time alone with Thee

HOW TO STOP DIABETES BEFORE IT STARTS

Pre-diabetes is not a disease and it has no obvious symptoms. Your blood sugar may test high. Just not high enough to be type 2 diabetes. The biggest risk factors are a sedentary life style and obesity. Genetics also contributes to your risk. About one third of adults has pre-diabetes. Besides exercise, diet is very important:

1. Use a small plate instead of a dinner plate.
2. A quarter of your meal should be lean protein.
3. Half of your meal should be vegetables and fruit.

Most foods are not forbidden. Just eat them in moderation. (One scoop of ice cream instead of three.)

Eat your three meals a day plus two snacks so you do not become hungry and allow your blood sugar to be low. This will cause you to overeat, especially in the evening.

YOUTH GROUP SCOOP

Youth Group started off in September with a pool party hosted by the Alexanders. They were excellent hosts! We had three youth from our church attend and four friends, along with Pastor Paul. It was a hot day, perfect for a pool party. Larry grilled hamburgers and hot dogs and Marlene provided some fruit and snacks, and the kids supplied a few favorites too. Thank you to the Alexanders for always opening up your home to our youth group.

In September, Pastor Paul continued his teachings on forgiveness and holding grudges. They also spent some time deep cleaning and organizing the youth room. On their wish list are ceiling fans, a mini fridge and window coverings. The excitement they have for their space is great to see.

October Youth Dates:

October 1: Youth Group 6:30 pm in the youth room

October 8: NO YOUTH GROUP, hope to see you at the church picnic.

October 15: NO YOUTH GROUP - instead October 14 "Luther" Movie .

October 22: NO YOUTH GROUP

October 29: All youth are invited to pumpkin carving, even the younger SVLC youth. If you are under 10, bring a parent to help you carve your pumpkin. We will meet in the fellowship hall at 6:30. Pumpkins provided by the youth group. Please RSVP to Marlayna at (951) 924-2920 so we know how many pumpkins to purchase.

We are grateful for leaders in our youth who are excited about spending time together, inviting friends, interest in community service and planning events that interest them. With this leadership we are certain they will grow in their love for Christ and go out in the world spreading God's word.

WANTED: YOUTH LEADER. We are looking for someone to lead our youth group. If you know anyone who might be interested in this position, please contact Pastor Paul.
